Why Choose an EAS Consultant?

There are a lot of admissions consulting services out there. We know you have choices. But we are confident in saying that our college admissions consultants are the best in the biz. Why? Well, for starters...

- We pair you with one of our admissions consultants, it is not random. We work to find the absolute best fit and partner you with someone who will understand your experience, your goals, and your work style. They will be the ideal partner to help you create an application that showcases your utmost potential.

- You will work continuously with the same consultant, and they will get to know your strengths and weaknesses. They will deeply understand who you are as a person. They will know your whole story and how to help you tell it.
- Our consultants pour their heart and soul into their clients, and they are just as invested as you are in getting you into your dream college. Yes, they will provide expert guidance and assistance. But they will also be your cheerleader, your support, and your biggest fan. The competitive edge you will gain by having someone like this in your corner cannot be overstated.

Do not Waste This Opportunity

Whether you are only looking to get an undergrad degree, or you plan on pursuing advanced degrees, the college you get into will affect what your future looks like. Do not leave something this major to chance. Get expert help today, and you will be able to look back on this decision as the turning point on your road to college acceptance and, eventually, a successful, fulfilling career.
